Dear Parents,

RE: Judo Grading Tournament 2005

Many people see the grading system as one of the major appeals of judo, a series of steps for the judoka to climb and an incentive for those who may have no ambitions towards Olympic competition but who want a measure of their own improvement.

All judokas are recognisable by the colours of their belts. When one has a grade, he/she can walk into any club and his/her ability will be acknowledged immediately. Once a player has earned a grading, he/she can continue to wear it until he/she feel ready to take the next on the scale.

When a player starts for the first time, he/she will wear a white belt. He/she will not have to take a test for it, and the player will wear it throughout the beginners' period and until the first grading. Every six months, a beginner or yellow belt player can take an examination for a judo grade. For orange and green belt player is once every year.

A judo handbook will be given automatically to all yellow belt players once they reach this level. Players should keep the book as this will not be given to any other colour belt players. The book indicates only those techniques to be tested in the grading. It is not a coaching booklet. The correct coaching can only be acquired by qualified judo instructors.

If the player passes an examination, a certificate will be given which is signed by the grading committee, T. K. T. Judo Club. And from that moment he/she can wear the new grade. It could be a few mon grade ribbons or a new colour belt. Please note that entering a grading does not mean that he/she can promote to the next colour belt.

For further information regarding grading, you may speak to your judo coaches after the class or phone us at 9324-3311.

Yours in judo

Vicky Man
Managing Director

This illustration below indicates that the wearer of a judo player with three red bars is a young judo player who has won the grade of 3rd Mon at judo mon grading competition. The red bars are made from half inch wide red edging tape, which will be presented together with your certificate or can be purchased for a few dollars from a clothing store or haberdashery. The bars are sewn around the belt, the first bar being two inches from one end (the opposite end to the manufacturer's label if there is one) and the rest further in from the end at half-inch intervals.
